All you need is to type in your book's ISBN, and you'll have access to multiple price options. Alternatively, it can organize a courier service to pick them up. Expect to receive check payments within 10 business days. Below are a few websites you can use to sell your textbooks online. If you opt for PayPal, you can receive your pay a day after processing your shipment. Submit the ISBNs and get an instant quote through the website or free app, or scan the books using the app and get your quote in minutes instead of waiting during the bidding process. The platform provides antique booksellers with low seller fees and fraud protection. Unfortunately, purchasing or renting textbooks can be an expense some students have difficulty affording while in school. Here are the top sites you can make use of. This free classifieds site is full of comic fans, and you can get multiple offers on your comics, especially if they're in mint condition. Unlike other websites, Etsy lets you set the price for your item. Ziffit As your kids outgrow their books, you can trade them in for cash through Ziffit. The only difference is that the website links you to different buyback sites with multiple offers for your textbook. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you — it also goes a long way in helping students acquire the course materials they need. A quick easy read, meant for children, but I loved it none-the-less. The shipping is also trackable, so you'll know when the book is delivered to the company's offices. Then, when the company receives your package, you'll receive Amazon credits as payment. Selling Textbooks New textbooks for students cost a fortune. Payment processing is relatively fast through check or PayPal. It's advisable to compare prices of similar book sales to get a better idea how you should price your titles. This way, you don't have to worry about your books being too heavy to haul; Ziffit finds the right courier service and has them picked up from your door. The platform also provides various tools to make the selling process more manageable. With the trade-in program, you submit your book's ISBN and fill out a questionnaire on your book's condition. Campus Books Similar to the previous sites, you can sell your textbooks on CampusBooks.com by simply inputting your ISBN. Alibris Gather your rare book collection and trade the titles for cash using Alibris.com. Decluttr Decluttr.com offers a straightforward process to sell your kids' old books — you don't even need to sign up for anything. Although it's known more for being an artist marketplace, many collectors flock to this website in search of unique antique items. Thanks to the website's Fast Next Day payment, you can receive your earnings a day after they receive your books. Photo Courtesy: Daniel Balakovi/Stock Selling Children's Books If your little readers are growing up, you can declutter your home and turn your children's old books into cash through these online websites. CampusBooks.com also offers free shipping with payment processing through checks, cash, store-credit payments and PayPal. The platform provides commission-free sales for dealer-dealer trading as well. Biblio Biblio offers you the opportunity to trade your out-of-print or vintage copies internationally. If you've hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now — and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine. To sweeten the deal even more, there are many different websites where you can sell your old books. Once you accept the offer, you'll get a prepaid shipping label from FedEx or Media Mail. Instead of letting them collect dust, why not sell them online? You can choose between using the trade-in program and setting up a seller account. Page 3 Stories of growing up at Elmshaven Imagine having a grandma who lived in a big, beautiful house in the country, wrote books for God, talked with angels, and—most of all—loved children! Mabel had a great grandma just like this, and her name was Ellen White. All you need to do is use Decluttr's valuation engine or the free iOS or Android app to get an instant price for your book. Once you accept an offer, you ship the books for free to their destination. Biblio offers low commissions and fees and can help you reach a broad audience of buyers who are interested in specialty titles. Ziffit gives you the option to drop the books at a Collect+ store. BooksCouter.com BooksCouter streamlines your selling process by helping you find the best prices. It's part of a vast network of reputable buyback vendors, which allows you to get multiple quotes for your book from one platform. In addition, through the BookDeal website, you can input the book's ISBN and wait for the vendors to respond. According to The Washington Post, 65% of students skip or delay buying or renting textbooks because the reading material is so expensive. For example, you can upload photos of the book and use the website's sales data to attract more customers. Amazon On Amazon, you have a few options for selling everyday books. But not all of them are ideal for every type of book you might be interested in selling. It's a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. You need to set up a profile on Etsy.com to start selling, and it's important to make your listing as detailed as possible to attract the right buyers. Amazon then makes you an offer for the book. Additionally, if you don't sell any books, you don't have to pay the monthly fee. Selling Vintage or Out-of-Print Books Are you a vintage enthusiast who's thinking about trading in some of your collection? There were many chapters that I wish had more to do with her relationship with her Grandma, Ellen White, though I still very much enjoyed the stories she wrote about that didn't relate to her grandmother.
